Book List Sent Out. Hook List Sent Out.

All school book publishers have signed the contracts for furnishing high scnool books to the pupils of this State. There is only one exception, and this was not caused by threatened taxation, but by the reluctance of the publisher to accept the prices named for the two books furnished by nim, which are placed on the single list which are placed on the single list scale. It is still possible that this contract may be signed later.

The official list of books has been sent out to the high schools by the Pepariment of Public Instruction.
